ZIMMERMAN ESTATE INVENTORY SHOWS SECURITIES WORTHLESS

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 16.—The inventory of the personal estate of Eugene Zimmerman, father-in-law of the Duke of Manchester, was filed by the appraisers yesterday and is valued at only $800,000. At the time of his death Mr. Zimmerman was believed to be worth millions, but the appraisers found the bulk of his stocks and bonds to be practically worthless.

The case bears a remarkable parallel to that of the late Calvin S. Brice, United States senator from this state. Mr. Brice's fortune was estimated in the millions, but in appraisal shrank to less than $700,000.

C. A. C. OFFICERS HERE FOR SEMI-ANNUAL MEETING AT ARMORY TONIGHT.

The semi-annual meeting of the Board of Officers' Association of the Coast Artillery corps will be held at the state armory here tonight at 8 o'clock. Col. Henry S. Dorsey of New London, chief of the Coast Artillery corps, will preside. About 50 officers from all cities in the state in which companies of the corps are located will attend the meeting. Preparations for the annual artillery school in May and the annual encampment in June will be made. Binocular glasses have been issued by the government to all officers.

After riding home from school a mile in the public transportation wagon, the country boy starts out on a five mile hike for trout.

WILLIAM H. HART STATE COMMANDER OF SONS OF VETERANS

William H. Hart of Stratford, past commander of Franklin Bartlett camp, No. 11, Sons of Veterans of this city, was elected division commander at the division encampment of the order held at New Britain yesterday. E. L. Graves of Bridgeport was chosen a member of the division council. Mr. Hart's election as division commander was unanimous. About 75 members of Franklin Bartlett camp attended the joint encampment of the Grand Army, Sons of Veterans, Daughters of Veterans and Ladies of the G. A. R., held in New Britain yesterday. Among those at the Sons of Veterans' encampment was Commander-in-Chief Chas. F. Sherman of Mount Vernon, a former resident of Bridgeport. Many of the Bridgeporters who attended the encampment made the trip from Bridgeport to New Britain in automobiles.

Mrs. Edith Green of this city was elected state vice-president of the Daughters of Veterans. Mrs. Elizabeth Gregory of this city was chosen a member of the state council. Neither the Sons or Daughters of Veterans selected a place for their meeting next year.

At the meeting of the Ladies of the G. A. R., Mrs. Bertha Brown of this city, state secretary, read a report for the last year showing that the order has a membership of 197. At the joint encampment in the evening, Past Commander-in-Chief Alfred B. Beers of this city made an address.

Lazard Freres, bankers, announced the engagement of $7,000,000 gold in Ottawa for importation to New York.

CARRANZA CLAIMS BIG VICTORY OVER FORCES OF VILLA

Washington, April 16.—Confirmation was awaited here today of the reported defeat of Villa forces north of Coahuila by troops under General Obregon. Messrs. Carranza and Obregon, agency from Vera Cruz said that Obregon, in reporting a decisive victory over the Villa forces, claimed to have captured 2,500 prisoners and 14 cannons. He added that he was in pursuit of the enemy.

Unofficial advices from Vera Cruz said that Obregon reported that 5,000 Villa troops had been killed and that 6,000 prisoners and 40 field pieces taken.

Affidavits have been received by diplomatic representatives here from the international commission of Mexico City, which in many cases have been confirmed by previous advices received alleging the existence of conditions of anarchy in Mexico City and reciting specific instances of abuse of foreigners there. FLAGS OF CITY SET AT HALF-STAFF IN MEMORY OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN

With flags at half staff and proper exercises commemorative of Abraham Lincoln, the 50 anniversary of his death was observed in Bridgeport yesterday.

Throughout the city, Federal, state, and municipal buildings flew the stars and stripes at half-staff. The veteran's organizations were the scenes of meetings at which reminiscences were exchanged, and in the schools the younger generation were instructively entertained by memoirs of Lincoln.

OBITUARY

HANNAH NORA WHALEN.

The funeral of Hannah N. Whalen, wife of John P. Whalen, was held from her late residence No. 135 Cottage street Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock, and from Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock, where a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated for the repose of her soul by Rev. Father Mooney assisted by Rev. Father Blake as deacon, and Father Judge as sub-deacon. Schmitt's funeral mass was sung by the church choir. At the offertory Mrs. R. J. Witterwill and Mrs. J. E. Casserly sang "Domini," and after the mass "I Will Give You Rest" was sung. Many beautiful floral tributes surrounded the casket, which showed the respect of her many friends towards her. Mrs. Whalen was born in Ireland coming to Newtown some years ago, where she made her home, until she moved to Bridgeport where she spent her remaining years. She was a devout communicant of St. Rose's church in Newtown, where there and also in Sacred Heart church of this city, where she belonged to the Holy Rosary and Scapular society. Deceased had made an exceptionally large acquaintance in Bridgeport as well as in Newtown, who will be indeed greatly shocked to learn of her death. She was a woman of an excellent and loving character, devoted loved and respected by all who knew or came in contact with her. She is survived by a husband, John P. Whalen, one daughter, Katherine, and two sons, John R. and James W. Whalen, also three brothers, Patrick of Newtown, Michael of New York, and James Roche of Ireland and one daughter, Mrs. J. Crotty of Danbury. The pallbearers were Michael, Patrick and John Roche, John Ryan, John Lyman and Robert Kelley. Rev. Father Judge officiated at a committal service at the grave in the family plot in St. Michael's cemetery.
